

Blog: RSS Feed

Creating a blog is a great way to show your Expertise! However, you may want this blog to be in more than one location. You can now push your blog to other places using an RSS feed.

How to find your RSS feed

1. From your Agent Website Admin page, Blog Settings from the Settings menu.

2. Copy the link below and paste it to your favorite media aggregation tool e.g. Social HQ, Hootsuite, to have blog updates automatically pushed out.
