Rebecca was and is amazing. She really listens to your needs. She helped us search for over a year and was always honest. In every home, she was great at showing the pros and cons and always had an eye for one beyond what we saw. Her office staff follow up has been appreciated as well. She gave us suggested contractors for a few things we needed fixing. She also helped us with the list of utility companies, schools, and general area information. She is a full service agent who doesn't want to just sell you a house, but she wants to help you find a home. I cannot recommend her enough to anyone who might be searching for a home. Her dedication to you, as a client is unsurpassed.

Rebecca is one of the hardest-working people I know. As my realtor, she climbed under a home, went up and down into crawlspaces and attics and gave excellent advice regarding pricing and work that would need to be done. There is no other real estate agent I work with, and I have told all my friends that Rebecca is THE agent to work with when they're ready to shop for a home.
